Star Wars and Jews

Star Wars themed Purim

Purim Shabbat

Friday, March 25, 2016

If you google “Star Wars and Jews” you will be amazed at the number of articles that have been written about the comparisons between the two. The first is the story of a people. A new government declares the practice of an old religion outdated and illegal. Relying on the old religion is punishable by death. A small group of rebel fighters, with spiritual help, have the strength and will power to overcome the evil rulers. Chanukah or Star Wars?

The second is the names. Jedi is very similar to the Hebrew word for Jew – Yebudi. (There is no letter for “J” in Hebrew. “Y” in Hebrew becomes a J in English.) Yoda is similar to the Hebrew word for knowledge – Yada. Yoda is all knowing. And there is Obi Wan Kenobi – Kenobi is similar to the Hebrew word – K’Navi – like a prophet. (In Hebrew “B” and “V” are interchangeable.) Also, some have evaluated the text written on Darth Vader’s breastplate. If you look closely it contains upside down Hebrew letters. According to one translation, it says, “His deeds will not be forgiven until he merits.”

The descriptions of The Force are similar to the Jewish view of God. The Jedi do their best when they can feel the presence of The Force. The good side that the Jedi seek to maintain is similar to the Jewish view of two inclinations within each of us. On one side we have the Yetzer Tov – the inclination to do good. On the other side, we have the Yetzer Ra - the inclination to do evil – the Dark Side. Each of us has temptations toward the dark side. It is only when we connect to God that we are better able to listen to the good implanted within us.

Carrying this theme into March, we will have a Star Wars themed Purim this year on Purim Shabbat, Friday, March 25th, 2016. We will need readers to read the following parts:

- Esther – Princess Leia
- King Achashverosh – Han Solo
- Mordechai – Obi Wan Kenobe
- Vashti – Rey
- Haman – Darth Vader
- King’s Advisors
  - Yoda
  - Luke Skywalker
  - Chewbacca
- Narrators
  - R2D2 ( no speaking parts, just beeps)
  - C3PO

If you are interested in a part, contact Rabbi Medwin – rabbimedwin@me.com. No need to memorize. You can read directly from the script. Rabbi will have masks available. You are welcome to elaborate on your own costume.

Join with Rabbi Medwin to Support Reform Judaism in Israel

This February, I will participate in a fundraising run/walk in Tel Aviv to support Reform Judaism in Israel. I hope you will join me by pledging a donation to this important cause. Our Reform institutions in Israel, and especially our Reform rabbis and lay leaders, are striving every day to create an Israel that is democratic, pluralistic, and inclusive.

To show my support for Reform Judaism in Israel, I will be participating in the Tel Aviv 5K Walk in February during the 2016 CCAR Israel Convention. Each of us who participates in the walk will be providing both our moral support and significant financial resources to Reform Judaism in Israel. Please remember that:

✧ Reform Judaism in Israel provides opportunities for meaningful engagement with Jewish tradition and Jewish values in a pluralistic society, with freedom of conscience, faith, and religion.

✧ Reform Judaism in Israel is growing quickly - close to thirty percent in the last three years - and with our help it can continue to take an ever-stronger role in Israeli society.

✧ In today's shifting Israeli society, polls show that nearly twenty-five percent of Israeli Jews choose Reform as the Jewish Movement with which they most closely identify.

✧ Israeli Reform congregations do not receive governmental funding to the extent of Orthodox congregations, if at all.

✧ With your help, Reform organizations will be able to expand their engagement of Jews throughout Israel including MARAM (the Israeli Rabbinic Association), Israel Movement for Progressive Judaism, Israel Religious Action Center, and congregations.

My participation in this fundraising effort is in addition to the learning I will do at the CCAR Convention, engagement with the Reform community in Israel, and the new insights I will be able to bring back to our community. Please know that up to 10% of funds raised may be used as scholarships for rabbis who would otherwise not be able to participate in this wonderful journey.

Please consider a suggested contribution of between $18 to $180 to support my effort to move Reform Judaism forward when I participate in the Tel Aviv 5K, Walk. To make your commitment, simply link on the following site:

<http://www.ccarnet.org/donate-now/tel-aviv-marathon-sponsorship/>

Thank you in advance for whatever support you are able to offer.

Rabbi Michele Medwin

*The CCAR is a qualified 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization and donations are tax-deductible to the full extent of the law. This certifies that no goods or services will be received in exchange for the donation.

On Dec 25, Sholom University teachers and students conducted the service, after which we all went to Soy for dinner. Everyone had a wonderful time.

MONDAYS:

Israeli Poetry - Mondays, 4:30-5:45 p.m. ~ Teacher: Gandalf (Bob Rosengard)

Start date: February 29

Israeli poetry – Contemporary and 20th/21st century. Emphasis will be on content and style with a focus on critical analyses.

TUESDAYS:

Maimonides – Tuesdays 11:30 a.m.-12:45 p.m. ~ Teacher: Rabbi Michele Medwin

Start date: March 1

Moses Ben Maimon, also known as Maimonides or Rambam, was a learned Jewish scholar and physician, whose teachings have been studied for centuries. How should we describe God? What is so important about Monotheism? Why is the Torah important? If God created the Universe, why is there evil? What does Judaism teach about morals and ethics? How can we repent? These are some of the issues that Maimonides struggled with in the 12th century that we also struggle with in the 21st century. We will learn about some of Maimonides' teachings and discuss their relevance to us in today's world.

Kabbalah and Jewish Mysticism: Part II – Tues, 1:00 pm-2:15 pm ~ Teacher: Rabbi Michele Medwin

Start date: March 1

Based on the book, “God is a Verb: Kabbalah and the Practice of Mystical Judaism by Rabbi David Cooper, author of several books on Jewish meditation and Jewish mystical practice. Who are we? Where did we come from? Where are we going? How do we get there? These questions have fueled Kabbalists for nearly a millennium. Rabbi David A. Cooper is the first to bring this obscure and difficult tradition to a mainstream audience in a way that gently leads us to the heart of the subject, showing us how to transform profound teachings into a meaningful personal experience—and appreciate fully this great mystical process we know as God.. (Please purchase this book on your own. It is available through Amazon.com and Barnes and Noble.) This is a continuation of the first semester. There will be a brief review in the first class, so, you are welcome to join us for this course even if you did not take the previous one.

Conversational Hebrew for Beginners -- Tuesdays, 2:30-3:45 p.m. ~ Teacher: Stephanie Phillips

Start date: March 1

This course in modern Israeli Hebrew will emphasize speaking. Students will learn through hearing and repetition, with the help of recorded segments. Being able to pronounce words by reading Hebrew letters isn't absolutely necessary if a student is willing to use his or her own notation and memorize spoken words.

Textbook required: Ivrit Alfon: A Hebrew Primer for Adults sold at <http://www.behrmanhouse.com/store/product-sku/463>. Used books are available on Amazon.

NOTE: There will be no classes on March 15 and 22. Course will be extended to provide all 10 classes.

THURSDAYS:

Adult Hebrew Part 3 - Thursdays, 2:30-3:45 p.m. ~ Teacher: Lauren Miller

DO YOU REMEMBER RABBI AGIN?

Rabbi Solomon Agin To Be Honored for 50 Years of Service

Rabbi Solomon Agin, Rabbi of Temple Shalom from 1966 to 1979, is being honored for his 50 years of service in the rabbinate. Hosted by Temple Shalom of Port Charlotte, Florida, the dinner/dance celebration will be held on Saturday, March 5, 2016.

Rabbi Agin has taught, engaged, and inspired hundreds of students and congregants, Jews and non-Jews, fellow clergyman, civic, medical and business leaders. He has celebrated the lives and lifecycle moments of countless of people and provided support, understanding, and comfort in times of need, healing and loss.

While he has touched many lives, the same holds true for him. Many of our congregants, their parents and grandparents, have inspired and taught him and helped shaped the Rabbi to be who he is today. As part of this celebration, his children, Mindy, Jonathan, and Lori are creating a special tribute book and digital montage to present to him during the celebration and would be honored to capture your special memories and relationships.

Please share in this simcha with contributions to Ceremonial Book and Digital Montage

Please email thoughtful wishes, photos and/or short stories. You can also send a short video (less than 1 minute). We will also establish an Facebook page to let people post their thoughts/photos as well.

Please send your submissions to by Friday, February 12th.

For more information on the special evening, tribute book and digital montage, please contact Mindy Agin at 614-561-7036 or at the above email address.
