Tu B'Shevat
The Jewish Arbor Day

In Leviticus 19:23-25 we read, "When you enter the land and plant any tree for food, you shall regard its fruit as forbidden. Three years it shall be forbidden for you, not to be eaten. In the fourth year all its fruit shall be set aside for jubilation before Adonai, and only in the fifth year may you use its fruit — that its yield to you may be increased: I Adonai am your God." This is the first time a specific holiday regarding counting the years of a tree is found in the Mishnah (Part of the Talmud). Hillel says that the proper date to begin counting is Tu (15th) of Shevat. So if you plant a tree on the 14th of Shevat, it is considered one year old on Tu B'Shevat.

While it is not a "religious" holiday, there are several customs that have developed to celebrate Tu B'Shevat. One is to eat from the Seven Species mentioned in the Torah: wheat, barley, grapes, figs, pomegranates, olives, and dates (or honey from the dates). Some plant trees in Israel specifically on this date. In the 17th century, Kabbalists developed a ritual based on the Passover seder to celebrate the spiritual significance of fruits and nuts.

Join us at Temple Sholom on Friday, February 10, at 6 PM for our Tu B'Shevat Shabbat seder where we will recite the Shabbat prayers, celebrate the beauty and importance of trees, and learn about the spiritual meaning of various fruits and nuts, as we enjoy eating these special foods.

We are again using the webinar conferencing service Zoom. If this is your first time you will need to download their software. It may do this automatically once you click on the link above, or instruct you how to do so, depending on the device you are using.

A wonderful feature of the Zoom webinar service is that if you sign on early, you will be able to see and talk to others that have also signed on early, having your own "schmooze" before services.

Every week a reminder email is sent. If you are not receiving these emails, please provide your email address to the temple office.

Think of the temple once a month and become a member of the Chai Club ($18 or less)

Send a Golden Book message whenever the opportunity comes up ($5)

To Stephie Millett. Deepest condolences on the loss of your uncle.
From: Maureen & Bob Velten

Think of Temple Sholom, once a month, when your checkbook is out for other matters. Then, if you can, send us a small love donation, for no purpose other than to keep us here. Some months you might send $18 (hence the Chai), some months less. Even what seems to be a small amount adds up. Take this opportunity to share in the good feeling of supporting our temple.

ARE YOU DONATING TO THE YAHRZEIT FUND in honor of a loved one whose name does not appear on the member list, or on a memorial plaque, or on a tombstone at the Temple Sholom cemetery?

If you would like the name of your loved one read at Friday services, you must let us know the actual yahrzeit date. Otherwise we have no way of knowing what the date is.

A complete list of burials in the Temple Sholom Cemetery, along with pictures of tombstones, can be found at <http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=cr&CRid=425591>. This website seems to have been developed, not by temple members, but by a small group of people who are interested in Jewish heritage. You may want to check it out.

Is your oneg sponsorship for a special commemoration or occasion?
