Simchat Torah Shabbat
Friday, October 13, 7:30 pm
Come celebrate the joy of the Torah.

- * First we dance with the Torahs around the sanctuary.
- * Then we unroll the Torah, book by book, pointing out important verses.
- * We read from the last verses in Deuteronomy and back to the beginning in Genesis!

Anyone interested in reading just one verse of Torah that night, contact Rabbi Medwin or add your name to the sign up sheet on the office door.

From: the Rabbi...

Sukkat Shlomecha – Your Sukkah of Peace

Having finished the solemnity and serious work of the High Holy Days we now move into the holiday of Sukkot, often referred to as Z'man Simchteinu – a time of rejoicing and celebrating. We have done the work of renewal and are now ready to celebrate the promise of a new year. We do this by eating or dwelling in a Sukkah – a temporary structure with a roof made of natural materials that provides more shade than sun but also allows enough of an opening to be able to see the stars. It reminds us that even in a dwelling place we maintain a connection to nature and God's creations. We acknowledge our vulnerabilities and rejoice in God's protecting shelter.

Rabbi Eliezer described the Sukkah as Ananei Kavod, clouds of glory. It is reminiscent of the cloud pillar representing God that followed the Israelites in the desert during the day. This guarded and guided them in their journeys.

As I reflect over the dramatic images of the remnants of both Hurricane Harvey and Hurricane Irma, with roofs torn off their foundations and some structures totally demolished, I am reminded of the Hebrew Chatimah that ends the Hashkeveinu prayer – ufros aleinu sukkat shlomecha – Eternal God, spread over us Your sukkah of peace. Cantor Debra Winston wrote a beautiful version of this prayer when her home was destroyed by a hurricane years ago. We sometimes sing it during Shabbat services.

*O guide my steps and help me find my way;
I need Your shelter now.*

*Rock me in Your arms, and guide my steps.
And help me make each day
A song of praise to You.*

*Rock me in Your arms and guide my steps.
Ufros Aleinu Sukkat Shlomecha –
Spread over us your Sukkah of peace.*

This prayer is dedicated to all those that lost their homes in the recent hurricanes.

Rabbi Michele Brand Medwin, D.Min.

Each course is 10 classes and is open to the community. Please tell your friends and neighbors. Starting dates vary by teacher. Please refer to the course description to see the starting date for each class.

TUESDAYS:

1. Essays on Ethics: Weekly Reading of the Jewish Bible –

Tuesdays, 12 Noon – 1:15 PM Taught by: Rabbi Michele Medwin
[Course starts on October 17, 2017]

No religion has held a higher view of humanity than the Torah, which tells us we are each in the image and likeness of God. Yet, none has been more honest about the failings of even the greatest. God does not ask us to be perfect. He asks us, instead, to take the risks in pursuit of the right and the good, and to acknowledge the mistakes we will inevitably make. We will be using the book, Essays on Ethics: Weekly Reading of the Jewish Bible by Rabbi Jonathan Sacks to learn about the ethics taught in the Torah. This Fall we will concentrate on the book of Exodus, covering the following topics: On not obeying immoral orders, free will, telling the story, the face of evil, the structure of the good society, healing the heart of darkness, the labor of gratitude, the ethics of holiness, can there be compassion without justice, the spirit of community, integrity in public life.

2. One People Two Worlds: A Reform and an Orthodox Rabbi Explore the Issues that Divide Them – Tuesdays, 1:30-2:45 PM Taught by: Rabbi Medwin

[Course starts on October 17, 2017]

After being introduced by a mutual friend, these two rabbis embarked on an unprecedented 18-month e-mail correspondence on the fundamental principals of Jewish faith and practice. What results is an honest, intelligent, no-holds-barred discussion of issues on which Reform and Orthodox differ including the existence of a Supreme Being, the origins and authenticity of the Bible, and the Oral Law, the role of women, assimilation, the value of secular culture, and Israel. Learn about these differences and where you fit in personally with your own beliefs. We will be using the book, One People Two Worlds, by Ammiel Hirsch and Yosef Reinman. (There are several used hard cover books in good condition on Amazon.com or in paperback from Amazon or Barnes and Noble.)

THURSDAYS:

3. Beginner Hebrew – No experience necessary -- Thursdays, 12:15 PM

Taught by: Lauren Miller [Course starts October 5, 2017]

4. Adult Hebrew Level 2 -- Thursdays, 1: 45 PM Taught by: Lauren Miller

PRIMETIMERS

Next meeting: Monday, October 2 1:00 PM

A marvelous time was had by the PrimeTimers, temple members, and friends, who were on the trip to Washington, Mt Vernon, and Baltimore. Everyday was packed with sumptuous breakfasts, dinners, entertainment, and tours guided by a historian who had so much information to share with us. The last day we went to Fort McHenry, where Francis Scott Key wrote the Star Spangled Banner. Our last visit was to the beautiful Baltimore Inner Harbor where we had lunch and enjoyed the beauty of the harbor. It was a memorable trip with a great group.

We have deposits of $75/pp for about 30 people for our trip to Maine on August 27-31, 2018. Although the brochures are not ready, here are some of the highlights: 4 nights lodging at the same hotel, all breakfasts and dinners, guided tour of Portland, Maine's largest city by the sea, bath iron works, guided tour of Kennebunk and Kennebunkport, tour of historic Victoria Mansion, guided tour of Pineland farms, a picturesque working farm, visit to Boothbay Village, visit to the seashore Trolley Museum, and a countryside trolley ride. If the price stays the same as last year it will be $565/pp. If you are interested, send me a refundable deposit of $75/pp.

Our last meeting of the season will be at Temple Shalom on Monday, October 2, at 1:00 PM. Our speaker will be Dr. Eno Carrono, a pain management specialist. Don't miss this meeting; she is wonderful.

Shalom,

Paula

Fall/Winter Shabbat Schedule

5:30 PM Snacks and Schmooze

6:00 PM Shabbat Services

Temple Office --

Many hours during the week, Steph is the only one in the temple. Sometimes she has to leave the building (picking up the mail, shopping for the oneg, etc.). If you plan to come to the temple during office hours, PLEASE call ahead to make sure someone is in the office before making a special trip into Monticello.

Please send your photos of temple events to Stephanie Phillips at phillipssteph@gmail.com so everybody can enjoy them on our Temple Sholom Monticello Facebook page.
