HONORING ALL JEWS BY CHOICE

Friday, Shavuot Shabbat

May 18, 2018, at 7:30 PM

It is traditional to read the book of Ruth on Shavuot. Ruth was the first named person in the Bible to voluntarily join herself with the Jewish people. This year we honor all Jews by Choice in our congregation—those who were not born Jewish but chose to be part our people by converting to Judaism.

Rabbi Medwin will honor you under the Blessing Chuppah and, if you are interested, ask you to share in the reading of the Book of Ruth that night.

You are a blessing to us and we are grateful. Contact Rabbi Medwin if you are interested at rabbimedwin@me.com or let the temple office know at 845-794-8731.

From: the Rabbi...

Ruth – The First Voluntary Jew

The five Megilot (stories written on a scroll) are associated with various Jewish holidays. The most well-known Megilah is the book of Esther read on Purim. On Shavuot Shabbat, Friday, May 18, we will be reading from the book of Ruth. Shavuot is considered the holiday that celebrates receiving the Torah at Mt. Sinai. It is traditional to read the Ten Commandments on Shavuot. We also read from the book of Ruth because Ruth represents the first known person to voluntarily connect herself with the Jewish people, to voluntarily accept the Ten Commandments. She chose to return to Israel with her mother-in-law rather than stay with her own people. (Until then we read of the Patriarchs and Matriarchs and their biological descendants.)

On Shavuot Shabbat I would like to honor all those, who like Ruth, chose to voluntarily convert to Judaism and join our people. We are blessed to have you as part of our family. It would be most appropriate for Jews by Choice to read the story of Ruth that night at Shabbat Services. If you are interested, please contact Rabbi Michele Medwin at rabbimedwin@me.com or 607-765-2895.

On Shavuot Shabbat, Friday, May 18, we will be reading from the book of Ruth, another Megilah.

Rabbi Michele Brand Medwin, D.Min.

New Look and New Platform for Our Temple Website

What this means to you:

1. Our web address remains the same — <http://www.templesholomny.org>
2. The content on the site remains the same.
3. The design/look of the site is entirely different.
4. A significant new feature: the site will be responsive (when fully complete). This means that if you access our site with a mobile device, our site will detect it and the design and information displayed will be optimized for that device's viewing. Given that more than half of current web traffic is from cell phones and tablets, this is an important feature.

Website services are offered by the Union for Reform Judaism (URJ) as a benefit to its member congregations. Temple Sholom has taken advantage of these benefits for a number of years. The URJ is requiring all congregations to move their websites to the new platform and design. Our new site is still being refined, and I hope you find it to be a good source of temple information.

Mary Jane Harris

PRIMETIMERS

It's hard to believe that our first meeting of the Primetimers is almost here. Monday, May 21, at 1 PM we will show the film Hava Nagila. This will be followed by coffee and ... and a chance to be together after a long winter.

All subsequent meetings will be on the 2nd Monday of each month.

Our first trip to NYC has a few seats left. It is on Wednesday, June 20, and is still only $30/pp. On July 18, we will be going to the National Museum of Jewish History in Philadelphia. This will be a day trip. All exhibits are new and we have docents to guide us. The trip is $65/pp. Please call me if you are interested.

We look forward to seeing many of our members at our meetings.

Shalom,
Paula

Temple Sholom Theater Night Honky Tonk Laundry

August 2, 2018, at 8:00 PM
at Shadowland Stages in Ellenville

Great country music fills the air this summer with this regional premier of a brand new juke box musical featuring some of the best country and western songs of the last 60 years. Two crooning country gals feel they've been wronged and join forces to turn their good ol' laundromat into a boot-scootin' honky tonk. The talented duo perform fabulous tunes by artists like Patsy Cline, Trisha Yearwood, Tammy Wynette, Martina McBride, Reba McEntyre, Dolly Parton, The Dixie Chicks, and many, many more!

As always, tickets are limited. We have reserved the first five rows - the best seats in the house. Each year we sell out and have a waiting list.

Tickets: $36 per person. To make a reservation call the temple 845-794-8731 or David Harris 917-270-2999 or Paula Schroeder 561-496-3556 (winter) 845-794-2314 (summer). Please make checks payable to Temple Sholom and send or bring to the temple office. Camelotians: You may give your check to Paula Schroeder or David Harris starting in May.

Dining discount: We have made arrangements with Aroma Thyme Bistro (located next to Shadowland) for a 10% food discount on pre-theater dinners. In addition to their excellent menu, they now have their own smoker and are offering smoked wings and brisket. Mention Temple Sholom Theater Night when you make a reservation at 845-647-3000.

TEMPLE SHOLOM ANNUAL SEDER

The temple's annual Seder was enjoyed by all that attended. The Rabbi led a meaningful and interactive Seder, and everyone enjoyed the delicious meal. A special thanks to Stephanie M for planning and organizing with me, and to Anne Palley for her help in setting up. Thank you to Howard Perlman for all the help with cleaning up (especially the trash). Thank you to EVERYONE who helped bake, donated desserts, served, and cleaned up. The evening was certainly a temple family event.

Susan Kantor

Thank you for a beautiful seder.
