AUGUST 2018

AV / ELUL 5778

THE PRIMETIMERS enjoy their bus trips and
Temple Sholom reaps the benefits.
THANK YOU PRIMETIMERS!

From: the Rabbi...

The Month of Elul

August 11 starts the month of Elul in the Hebrew calendar.

It is the month that precedes the High Holy Days. Elul is a gift in that it gives us a month to start preparing for the important work of evaluating ourselves for the High Holy Days so that we can become better people.

The High Holy Days ask us to reflect on the concept of sin. Most of us are basically good people. We don't do many of the obvious sins. The Hebrew word for sin is "Chet." It can be envisioned as a target with our goals and aspirations in the center of the target. During the year, we may aim for these targets but we may miss them, either completely, or not get as close to the bullseye as we would like.

The challenge of the High Holy Days is to turn inward, and be brutally honest with who we are. We can ask, "What are the things that I want to change? Do I always treat people the way I want to? Am I always kind to myself? How do I interact with, and care for the world that God created? How do I respond to those in need? What am I proud of and what do I wish I had done differently?

We can think of our lives as a work in progress. What progress have we made? Have we digressed from where we would like to be as a person? The month of Elul is that chance to do a check in, to see where we have come from, and where we would like to go.

Wishing you a Shanah Tovah.

Rabbi Michele Brand Medwin, D.Min.

Shabbat Music

Rabbi Medwin is using more pre-recorded music during Shabbat services. A CD is available through the temple office to help you learn the songs.

Do you know someone who is ill? Please give the information to Rabbi Medwin so the congregation can say a prayer for healing.

Be the friendly face of Temple Sholom and greet participants as they arrive for Friday night services. Contact Stephanie Phillips at 845-436-9857 to be put on the schedule.

To My Temple Sholom Community

Thank you for your support at this difficult time. Your donations, cards, in honor of my Uncle Patrick's memory touched me deeply. Thank you for your thoughtfulness, sympathy and kindness. I deeply appreciate your expressions of support shown to me.

Thank you for your prayers and thoughts, and comfort you provided.

Persephanie "Stephie" Millett

You are encouraged to use the index cards provided to: write the name of, thoughts of, or add a photo of, people that have been special to you who have passed away.

The Hebrew word for "charity," tzedakah, simply means "justice," and to me this suggests that giving to our temple is not an optional extra but an essential part of living a just life.

As we approach the new year, our temple again asks for your financial support. Therefore, I am urging each of you to renew your Century Club membership, or if not a member, to please join us at our annual rate of $100 or more. The names and messages of all members are inscribed each year on the Century Club plaque in the lobby. In order to ensure your inscription we must have your commitment by Friday, August 3, so that it can be displayed before High Holy days beginning September 9.

The Seven Lights of Yizkor for Yom Kippur

There is a beautiful candle lighting ceremony as part of the Yizkor Service of the new High Holy Day Mahzor. Rabbi Medwin is looking for seven volunteers who will be at the Yom Kippur Yizkor service (Wednesday, September 19) and would like to light a candle and do a short reading. Since Yizkor can be emotional, we would rather ask for volunteers rather than assign these parts. This is a list of the topics for the readings:

- Candle 1 – On the Loss of Loved Ones
- Candle 2 – On Inner Strength and Survival
- Candle 3 – On the Holiness of Memory
- Candle 4 – Our Most Precious Relationships
- Candle 5 – On Acceptance
- Candle 6 – On Gratitude
- Candle 7 – On Finding Peace

If you are interested in doing one of these readings please contact Rabbi Medwin and let her know which reading you would like to do as soon as possible. Rabbimedwin@me.com or 607-765-2895.

2018 Mitzvah Members

As is happening with most religious and service organizations across the country, Temple Sholom is experiencing a growing gap between income and expenses. To help toward closing the budget gap, Temple Sholom members are being asked to contribute, according to their ability, an additional amount above regular membership dues. Can you step forward to support the continued existence of Reform Judaism in Sullivan County?

The three levels of Mitzvah Membership are:

and refused payment.
