From: the Rabbi...

From the most religious to the most secular, the one thing that almost all Jews do is attend a Passover Seder, either at their own home or someone else's home. I have often had congregants share with me fond memories of their rituals and traditions they remember from their childhood seders.

While there are standard universal Passover customs and traditions, families often create their own traditions. The Passover seder is designed to educate, so we are encouraged to come up with creative ways to keep the attention of the kids, as well as the adults. One fond memory I have is my father pouring the wine for Elijah. After he opened the door he would have us look very closely into Elijah's cup and say, "If you look really closely you can notice the wine going down a little. That means Elijah is here." I did believe him and I was able to "see" the wine level dropping, even if just a bit.

Why don't we share some of our Passover Seder memories with each other. Take a moment to write down a fond memory or two and send it to Rabbi Medwin (rabbimedwin@me.com) or to the temple office. Rabbi will share these at the temple seder, at the Friday Shabbat service the week later, and in next month's Harbinger.

Help the Rabbi to Help Others: The Rabbi's Discretionary Fund

Each congregation has a Rabbi's Discretionary Fund. The concept began so that the rabbi can more easily help those in need. Admitting you need help and asking for help can be embarrassing. The Fund is discretionary so that the rabbi can keep requests confidential. This year has been a particularly difficult year for some members of our community, and there have been several requests for help. The Rabbi's Discretionary Fund at Temple Sholom is at the lowest level it has been since Rabbi Medwin came to Temple Sholom.

Please consider making a donation to this fund. It can be in memory of a loved one or friend; in honor of a loved one or friend; or in appreciation for the temple, a temple member, or Rabbi Medwin. Know that your funds will help friends in need as they struggle to maintain their dignity during a difficult time. You can send or drop off a donation check to the temple office. Write in the memo that it is for the RDF and include a note explaining the reason for the donation. Your donation will be mentioned in the Harbinger. Thank you for your help.

YIZKOR – MEMORIAL SERVICE

Friday, April 26, at 6:00 PM

According to Jewish tradition, in addition to having a Yizkor service during Yom Kippur, Yizkor is also recited at the end of Passover. We will be having our Passover Yizkor service on Friday, April 26, at 6:00 PM before Shabbat services. Please join us to remember your loved ones, may their memory be for a blessing. Shabbat services start at 7:30 PM that night.

Thursday, August 29, at 8 PM at Shadowland Stages in Ellenville

OVER THE RIVER AND THROUGH THE WOODS

A wonderful family comedy by the writer of the hit musical revue, "I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change." You'll be warmly cheered up by this heartfelt tale of faith, family and food.

Nick is a young bachelor living in New Jersey who religiously spends every Sunday having dinner with his Italian grandparents. When he breaks the news that his employer is transferring him to Seattle, Nick's grandparents will go to any length to get him to stay, including setting him up with a blind date that just might change his mind.

"Loaded with laughs every step of the way!" -Star Ledger

"A hilarious family comedy that is even funnier than his long-running musical revue I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change" -Backstage

REMEMBER TEMPLE SHOLOM IN YOUR WILL

Bequests of all sizes are an important source of financial support for Temple Sholom, providing funds for temple programs, subsidizing membership, religious school scholarships, major maintenance of the building, and much more.

There are many ways you can make such a contribution to the temple in your will. You can specify a specific amount, a percentage of your estate, a special fund, or the general fund. Together, you and your advisors should decide what best suits your individual circumstances.

Thank you from our members, students, and the community who will benefit from your thoughtfulness in the future. We recommend you always consult your legal and/or financial advisor when providing for such a gift.
