From: the Rabbi...

Moses Was A Very Humble Man

I am writing this the morning of Shabbat B'haalotecha. As I usually do on Erev Shabbat, I will be reading a few verses of this Torah portion during Shabbat services. Fifty two years ago, on June 17, 1976, I read the same verses when I became a Bat Mitzvah.

Each year when I read the Torah portion again, I learn a new lesson. The parsha is about Moses and Miriam. Miriam complains about Moses because he gets more attention from God than she does, and Miriam feels she is also a worthy prophet, as good as Moses.

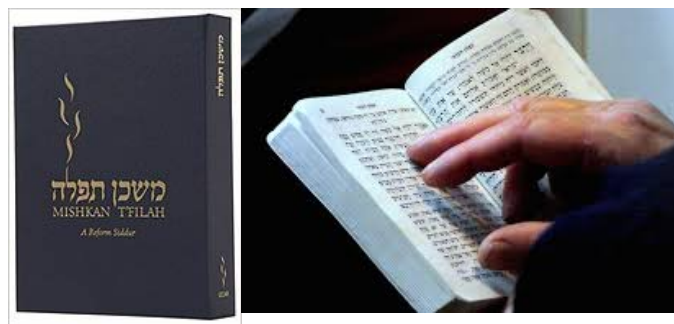

After that exchange, the Torah says, "Now Moses was a very humble man, more so than any other man on earth." (Numbers 12:3) It is because of Moses humility that the Torah is called the Five Books of Moses. God wants to teach Miriam a lesson of humility so she is banned from the camp for a week.

How does Judaism define humility? Being humble does not mean being docile or meek. Being humble does not mean continually deferring to other opinions. True humility is believing that one's special talents are gifts from God. Each person has been granted unique and special powers with which to effect change in the world. The humble person understands that he or she has been bestowed with these powers not for personal fulfillment but for tikkun olam, fixing the world, making the world better. The self-centered person looks upon his or her accomplishments as a sense of personal accomplishment. The humble individual removes the "I" from the task at hand. Saying not – "I need to perform these tasks," rather, these tasks need to be performed by me in partnership with God." Perhaps I was too young 52 years ago, to truly appreciate this valuable lesson.

Humility is not thinking less of yourself, it's thinking of yourself less.

Rabbi Michele Brand Medwin, D.Min.

“Hello Spring” Plant Sale a Big Success!

Thank you to everyone who supported this year's temple garden by purchasing plants, giving a donation, and offering to help this summer. The response by temple members and friends was outstanding again this year.

A special thank you to Rosemary Deitsch for her donation of 10 hanging plants, to Jane Jacobs for helping us on plant pick up day, and to Stephanie Millett and Marcia Salton for their administrative assistance.

Proceeds from the plant sale will enable us to maintain our Temple Sholom gardens as well as support additional projects to keep the building and grounds looking good. For example, last season we painted the railroad ties bordering the front paths and gardens. They were quite damaged after several hard winters.

This spring we updated the window treatments in the sanctuary. The curtains and valences were very worn and shabby. We replaced them with contemporary light filtering shades, which will allow light in during the day and privacy after dark.

Because you helped, the garden and building continue to look great.

Thank you.

The Beautification Committee

Thank you Carolyn and the Beautification
Committee for beautifying our sanctuary with new shades.

PRIMETIMERS

Next meeting: Monday, July 8, 1:00 PM

Our June meeting was well attended and we were privileged to have David Sager as our speaker. He discussed the Casino, Monticello, businesses, and aspirations for the community. He answered questions and the meeting was enjoyed by all.

Our next meeting is Monday, July 8, at 1 PM. We are hosting the Nesin Cultural Arts and will have inspiring young musicians entertain us. This is always a meeting we look forward to.

On Wednesday, July 24, we will sponsor a gambling trip to the Sands Hotel and Casino in Bethlehem, PA. The trip costs $30/pp and you get back $30 free play, $5 food, and a coupon book for the outlet stores. The bus leaves from the Temple Sholom parking lot at 9 am. Reservations and payment must be made by July 8, or we will have to cancel because of lack of interest.

On Wednesday, August 28, we have a trip to Mohegan Sun in Wilkes Barre, PA. The cost is $30 and you get $25 free play and $5 for food. The deadline for this is the August 12 meeting. This will also be cancelled if there is little interest.

We have kept the Primetimers dues at $10 again this year. For this you get priority on all trips, emails for our events, donations for your birthday, and the advantage of participating in excellent meetings with your friends and neighbors. Dues for 2019-2020 is now due. You can give it to Ellen Nesin at the meeting or mail it to her at:

85 Rock Ridge Drive, Monticello, N.Y. 12701

There are still some openings for our Cape Cod and Martha's Vineyard trip from Sept 9-13. Total cost for this all inclusive trip is only $499/pp. Please call Paula 794-2314 or Sue 796-3777 for brochures and details.

We hope you support Temple Sholom for our Card Party on Monday, July 29, from 11:30 - 4:00 at the Camelot Clubhouse. Donation is $25/pp. There will be a full buffet luncheon and a dessert and drink table for your enjoyment.

The annual theater party at Shadowland Stages in Ellenville is Thursday, August 29. The show is Over the River and Through the Woods. "It is a hilarious family comedy by the author of "I love you you're perfect now change."

See you next month.

REMEMBER TEMPLE SHOLOM IN YOUR WILL

Bequests of all sizes are an important source of financial support for Temple Sholom, providing funds for temple programs, subsidizing membership, religious school scholarships, major maintenance of the building, and much more.

There are many ways you can make such a contribution to the temple in your will. You can specify a specific amount, a percentage of your estate, a special fund, or the general fund. Together, you and your advisors should decide what best suits your individual circumstances.

Thank you from our members, students, and the community who will benefit from your thoughtfulness in the future. We recommend you always consult your legal and/or financial advisor when providing for such a gift.
