

Zoom Rosh Hashanah Schedule 2020

Highlights of Each Service

The Zoom link will be e-mailed Thursday morning. It is the same link we use for Shabbat services and will be the same link for all High Holy Day Services.

Friday, Sept. 18, 7:30 p.m. – Evening Service

- Guest Student Cantor – Isaac Sonnet-Assor. Since the congregation that Isaac works for has pre-recorded most of their High Holy Day services, Isaac has some free time during the actual Holy Days and has graciously offered to be with us for our Zoom services on Erev Rosh Hashanah, Kol Nidrei, and Yom Kippur morning.
- There are two special videos at the very beginning of the service. Please get on Zoom by 7:30. Leave extra time in case you have trouble getting on. We will start on time.
- Have ready Shabbat Candles, Kiddush Cup, Apples and Honey. We will say the blessings together.
- Rabbi's Message – The Emotional Rollercoaster - Facing Our Fears
(Instead of full sermons, Rabbi Medwin will be offering a short message on reflections of the past six months during each service.)
- We will be honoring Mitzvah Members under our "virtual chuppah."

Saturday, Sept 19, 10:00 a.m. – Morning Service

- Rabbi's message – Healing from Grief and Loss – Naming our losses during the COVID experience.
- We will start promptly at 10:00 a.m.
- We will be honoring our volunteers under our "virtual chuppah."

BREAK

Saturday, Sept. 19, 12:30 p.m. – Jewish Text Study

- Ira Simon will lead a Haftarah text study on the story of Hannah.
- A handout for the session will be e-mailed on Thursday.
(Instead of a Torah service we will have Jewish text study each morning based on the High Holy Day readings.)

Sunday, Sept. 20, 10:00 a.m. – Second Day Service

- This service will focus more on the creative readings offered in our Mahzor. We will vary some of the musical selections.
- We will start promptly at 10:00 a.m.
- Rabbi's message – Honoring Teachers
- We will be honoring adult learners under our "virtual chuppah."

BREAK

Sunday, Sept. 20, 12:30 p.m. – Jewish Text Study

- Rabbi Medwin will lead a text study on the Biblical Creation Story – How God went from Tohu Vavohu (chaos and disorder) to Shabbat peace. How can this guide us?
- A handout for the session will be e-mailed on Thursday.
