Join us for an amazing winter experience!
Uri Feinberg, one of the best educators and Israeli tour guides, will lead us on a unique journey.

No need to pack a suitcase. No need to pay for airfare or book a hotel.
Journey from the comfort of your home!

The tuition is $150* per person which includes ten sessions – two each week for five weeks, via Zoom.
There will be a unique Zoom link available only to those who register for the tour.

Tuesday sessions - History class

Thursday sessions - Virtual Visits to Israel

Week 1: The Early Zionists: Who were they, what did they believe, and where did they go.

Week 2: The Original Millennials: Following the Crusaders, their construction and their destruction

Week 3: The Golan Heights: In the footsteps of hikers, fighters, farmers, and a 5th century frontier

Week 4: The Second Temple: Pilgrims and Sects, the footsteps they took, and the stones that fell.

Week 5: Off the Beaten Path: Unique and interesting places that tours to Israel don't usually go to.

All sessions will be recorded if you can't make a class or want to watch a session again.
The link to the video will be e-mailed following each session.

* If finances would prevent you from taking the tour, contact Rabbi Medwin – rabbimedwin@me.com.
Scholarships are available. We want everyone who is interested to be able to join us.

Registration forms due by Dec. 20th. (See attachment)
There will be an additional registration fee for late registrations.

Invite your friends and family to join you on this exciting journey.

About Uri Feinberg

Uri Feinberg has been a Jewish Educator for 25 years. Born in the US, Uri immigrated to Israel when he was ten, grew up in Jerusalem served in the IDF and then, traveled the world. Uri has a Masters Degree from the Hebrew University in Contemporary Jewish Studies, and was a Jewish history teacher for North American teens, in semester programs in Israel, for many years. Uri spent three years in the US with his wife and three daughters where he served as the Interim Director of Education of Temple Israel of Boston. A licensed tour guide since 1999, Uri has worked as a tour educator for a wide range of groups including synagogue, Federation, URJ and CCAR leadership, interfaith and more. He has guided Jewish heritage trips throughout Europe and has lectured on Israel and Jewish identity across North America. In the current climate engulfing the world, Uri has re-harnessed what he does, and has taken his knowledge and his passion 'on-line'. He continues to reach out, and partner with the North American Jewish Community. Uri and his family live in the city of Modiin, and are active members of their Reform congregation, YOZMA. Uri's experience has been driven by a clear desire to share the power of the Land and State of Israel, to strengthen Jewish identity and a connection with the Jewish People. With his unique perspective, Uri recognizes that this process includes building bridges and having the ability to inspire and to be inspired.
