FEBRUARY 2021

SHEVAT - ADAR 5781

“Wear a Mask”

By Rabbi Michele B. Medwin, D.Min.

The holiday of Purim falls at the end of February this year. Purim is a holiday in which we dress up and wear masks. We get the chance to pretend we are someone we are not. We hide behind the face of someone else as a way to let down our guard and have fun - feel more free.

This year we face a different experience wearing a mask. This time the mask is to help us preserve who we are, to help us survive under the threat of the Corona Virus. But it also tests us. Yes, the mask is uncomfortable. It pulls on our ears. It fogs up our glasses. But it shows that we care, not only about ourselves, but about others. Wearing a mask is as much about keeping ourselves safe, as it is keeping others around us safe. There are public service messages reminding us of this. “Wear a Mask. Save Lives.” They don’t call it a mitzvah, but it certainly is - Pikuach Nefesh – saving a life, ours and others. While it has been hard lately to find the good in humanity, let’s not forget how much more goodness there is in the world than evil. Rather than hiding behind these masks, it showed who we truly are.

The book of Esther is one of the few books in the Tanakh that does not mention the name of God. According to Rabbi David Aaron, Purim represents a miracle which was greater than the miracle of Passover. “The ultimate revelation of God’s oneness happens when God does not have to openly interfere. This is the meaning of Megilat Esther – the revelation of hiddenness.”

Hidden within each of us is the potential to be God-like. As horrible as the pandemic has been, it has brought out or expanded the sometimes hidden sense of caring that is being shown by mask wearers, health care workers, and frontline workers.

IRA SIMON (and You?) TO LEAD SERVICES IN FEBRUARY

On February 12 and 19, Ira Simon will be leading Shabbat services on Zoom along with several members of the congregation. If you would like to help lead services on those evenings, please contact Ira to let him know. ira.m.simon@gmail.com (914) 799-0921

If you would like to sponsor the Virtual Oneg on either evening, let Temple Sholom know. There won't be a "Virtual Oneg Slide" but you will be acknowledged during services.

We will not be using slides that evening so it would be helpful for you to have your own Mishkan T'filah Prayerbook. We encourage you to purchase your own. It is something every Jewish home should have.

If you prefer, Ira has volunteered to meet you at the temple or drop one off at your home to be returned to the temple at a later date. Contact him to let him know if you are interested. ira.m.simon@gmail.com (914) 799-0921

Back to Basics: Torah Study from the Beginning

Taught by Rabbi Michele B. Medwin, D. Min.

Tuesdays, Noon - 1:15 PM

March 2 - May 11, 2021

(No class during Passover on March 30)

We will continue from where we left off in the Fall Semester, at Genesis Chapter 13.

We will read verse by verse and discuss the various ideas and concepts that come up. What are the messages we gain from the text? How does the verse speak to me personally? We will use The Torah's Seventy Faces: Commentaries on the Weekly Sidrah by Simcha Raz to supplement and add a spiritual dimension to our understanding of the texts. The book is available on Amazon or authorhouse.com.

You are welcome to bring any Torah commentary you have to add to the discussion.

You do NOT need to have taken this class before. You will be able to follow along without any previous knowledge of Torah.

* Adult Education ***
REGISTRATION FORM on PAGE 5
Deadline February 25

You can participate in Rabbi Medwin's classes remotely. If you have never used ZOOM before, you will need to download the software and follow the instructions. (See page 16.)

ZOOM is usually started by 11:45. If it is not up by noon, you can call the temple or the rabbi's cell phone, 607-765-2895.

The ZOOM link will be sent to those who register for Sholom Jewish University.

Are Your Grandchildren Part of Your Covid Pod?

Celebrate PURIM with them.

What can you do with your grandchildren in a pandemic that will entertain and teach them about Purim? In addition to reading the Book of Esther and baking hamantaschen, together with your grandchildren, watch the Shalom Sesame videos (<https://reformjudaism.org/jewish-holidays/purim/celebrating-purim-shalom-sesame-costumes>) to learn how Purim is (when Covid free) celebrated in Israel. Then try some of the activities recommended by Reform Jewish educators.

ACTIVITIES

Send in the clowns. Who doesn't like to dress up and make some friends and family giggle? One of the mitzvot of Purim is that it is to be joyful. Put on a silly fashion show with your grandkids, using only certain materials (i.e., recycled newspapers, parent's clothing, mismatched outfits). If you really want to get the creative juices flowing, ask them to dress up like other family members and try to guess who's who. This activity will bring out the goofy fashion designer in everyone!

Together with your grandchildren, read The Purim Costume by Penninah Schram. In this warm, contemporary tale, the complete story of Purim is framed by the experience of a modern-day child, Rebecca, who is tired of always dressing up as Queen Esther. Her mother suggests many other options, but none appeals to Rebecca. Finally, her mother suggests she dress up as Vashti. As Rebecca considers this unusual option and listens to the story of Purim at the spiel, she comes to realize just how important a character was Vashti.

Make a Purim grogger.
