

PURIM SHABBAT
Celebration of 100th Anniversary of the First Bat Mitzvah Ceremony in the United States.
IN PERSON and on Zoom!

HYBRID SCHEDULE

- 6:45 p.m. Shmooze for those on Zoom – those in person can talk with those on Zoom
- 7:15 p.m. Shabbat Services
- Hamantashen following the conclusion of services

In addition to singing Purim songs, hearing the Megillah read, and telling the Purim story we will also celebrate the 100th anniversary of the first Bat Mitzvah ceremony of Judith Kaplan. (See Rabbi's article in the March Harbinger.)

Rabbi Medwin will invite to the Bima, all women who have had a Bat Mitzvah ceremony for a special Aliyah. The second Aliya will be for all women who have served as Jewish leaders on a temple board. The third Aliya will be for all men who have supportive of women's participation in the temple and Jewish life.

For those who have celebrated a Bat Mitzvah, please send photos of your Bat Mitzvah to Rabbi Medwin who will incorporate them into a video. (Rabbimedwin@me.com) Here is the first one.
