From the President

There's never a dull moment at Temple Sholom, at least not until the snowbirds fly back to Florida. The month of September was chock-full of events. Paula Schroeder organized a fascinating trip to the Lower East Side with the Primetimers; guest Rabbi Robert Lefkowitz led a fast-moving, but more traditional service than usual, the Levins led a joyful baby naming for the Peskins' great granddaughter; and then the Primetimers were off to a 5-day tour of Williamsburg, Virginia and the surrounding area.

The Building Committee has performed a few miracles. We got the electrical wiring up to code, and the elevator is working. By Yom Kippur, a new, much improved sidewalk should be installed. Rick Stein has researched what steps we need to take to "harden" our building. We will hear more about security measures in the coming months.

On the less bright side, the heavy wind and rain seem to have blown some shingles off the roof, which is now leaking in a few places. The Building Committee is on the case.

You may have heard that Marcia Salton has stepped down as treasurer of the Board because of illness. We owe her a huge debt of gratitude for her many years of tending devotedly and conscientiously to the temple's finances. Marcia also took responsibility for managing the office, which became quite a daunting task as Steffie Millett became more disabled. We are fortunate that Ellen Nesin has stepped up to assume the responsibilities of Treasurer of the Board. We are still looking for a volunteer to oversee the office operations, which shouldn't be too difficult now that Pat Halprin has gotten it pretty well under control.

By the time you read this, Rosh Hashanah will be but a sweet memory, and we will be looking forward to Yom Kippur with Rabbi Joshua Gray and his wife Meghan.

We seem to have hit the jackpot with music this year. For the second time, we have been blessed with a terrific cantorial duo who are leading us through the High Holidays. And Jessica Nesin Liston, who has been our accompanist for many High Holidays past, will be joining us virtually via Zoom.

It is wonderful that so many of our members accepted honors during the High Holidays – it's great to hear from them, both live and on Zoom. For those of you who will shortly be leaving for warmer climes, we hope to continue to see you on Zoom and wish you the best for the coming year.

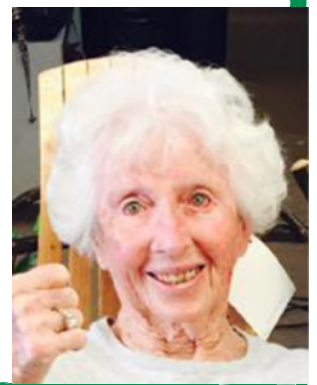

Shanah tova! G'mar chatimah tovah!

Steph

Stephanie Phillips, PhD
President

Thank you to the Monticello Greenhouse for donating the floral arrangement in front of the Bimah for the High Holy Days in Memory of Rosemary Heins Deitsch who was a long-time member of our temple. Rosemary saw to it that we had flowers at all of our services!

We have replaced the old prayer books and will be burying them in the cemetery. If you would like to take home a copy, they are currently available to be picked up from a box in the lobby.

Masks are strongly recommended when attending events at Temple Sholom.

Todah Rabah!

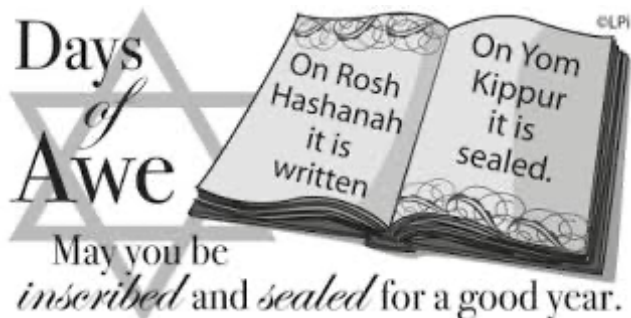

by Ira Simon on behalf of the Ritual Committee

In the past the Rabbi has honored our adult learners, our volunteers, our donors, and our leadership during High Holy Day Services. Given the circumstances for this year we will be acknowledging all of the above, but not gathering under the Chuppah.

Nonetheless, we wanted to let each of you who were in any of the above categories know how much you are valued and appreciated. Now more than ever we rely on members and non-members alike. Without individuals stepping up to support Temple Sholom we could not function.

As Jews we have an obligation to care for each other. The ritual committee is so appreciative that so many of you have made it an imperative to carry out that mitzvah.

L'shanah tovah tikatevu v'taihatemu.

Sholom University

Autumn is one of our favorite seasons. The richness of the leaves colorful turning and scents in the air bringing us into the fullness of the cycle of the earth, remind us to be present, to savor what is before us!

We are so grateful for the loving bond we have already been granted, getting to serve and be a part of this wondrous community. You inspire us in your dedication, not only to services and the temple but to one another. The classes, the trips, the concerts and all the extra curricular events that not only raise money for the shul, but strengthen the bonds and the fullness of life this community offers.

It's been a privilege to get to savor this first string of "firsts" with you. We had our first baby naming ceremony, our first Selichot service, which many of you joined on the bus ride home from Virginia. We are overjoyed anticipating our first Sukkot and Simchat Torah celebrations together.

This passage from Yitzhak Buxbaum's Jewish Tales of Mystic Joy points out the through line of this sacred series we have entered into :

"The holidays at this time of year are actually all connected to each other. First, comes Selichot, which leads into Rosh HaShanah and the Ten Days of Repentance, and they lead into Yom Kippur. After Yom Kippur comes Sukkot, the "Season of our rejoicing," and finally, the chain of holidays concludes with Simchat Torah, when we celebrate and dance with God's Torah. Why is Simchat Torah the culmination of all the holidays? Because joy is the highest worship there is...."

It is sincerely a tremendous joy to have the honor of being with you all and we look forward to many more firsts and returning simchas together.

Shalom,

Ira and Julia / The Levins

October 9-16, 2022

Sukkot is one of the most joyful festivals on the Jewish calendar. "Sukkot," a Hebrew word meaning "booths" or "huts," refers to the Jewish festival of giving thanks for the fall harvest. The holiday has also come to commemorate the 40 years of Jewish wandering in the desert after the giving of the Torah atop Mt. Sinai.

Also called Z'man Simchateinu (Season of Our Rejoicing), Sukkot is the only festival associated with an explicit commandment to rejoice. Sukkot is celebrated five days after Yom Kippur on the 15th of the Hebrew month of Tishrei, and is marked by several distinct traditions. One, which takes the commandment to dwell in booths literally, is to erect a sukkah, a small, temporary booth or hut. Sukkot (in this case, the plural of sukkah) are commonly used during the seven-day festival for eating, entertaining and even for sleeping.

Our sukkot have open walls and open doors, and this encourages us to welcome as many people as we can. We invite family, friends, neighbors, and community to rejoice, eat, and share what we have with each other.

Another name for Sukkot is Chag HaAsif (Festival of the Ingathering), representing the importance in Jewish life of giving thanks for the bounty of the earth.

PRIMETIMERS

We just returned from a memorable trip to Virginia Beach, Williamsburg, and Historic Norfolk. We loved the Virginia Beach aquarium, the guided tour of Colonial Williamsburg, the Mariners Museum, and the Nauticus and Battleship Wisconsin. The highlight of the trip was the deluxe cruise on the Spirit of Mount Vernon with a wonderful, bountiful buffet. Thank you everyone who joined us on this trip.

Because of our fundraising we were able to give increased donations to Hospice of Orange and Sullivan County, Federation of the Homeless in Sullivan county, Nesin Cultural Arts, and Temple Shalom.

Our September meeting was the last meeting of this season. We were privileged to have René Zerah speak about senior scams, which are so prevalent today. We all learned so much. René was able to answer all of our questions and concerns at the end of his presentation.

We are planning some wonderful day trips next year. We will do days on your own in NYC June 21 and August 23. We are finalizing other trips and will keep you posted.

Our first meeting next year will be Monday May 15, 2023.

Have a Happy Healthy New Year and we look forward to seeing you in May 2023.

Shalom,

Paula
