From the President

You never get a second chance to make a first impression

You've surely noticed the gorgeous floral displays outside our front doors. They certainly impress anybody who passes our building or enters our doors. Since 2006, Carolyn Richman and her helpers on the Beautification Committee have put on their gardening gloves and rolled up their shirtsleeves to make our entrance beautiful.

Stalwarts of her committee, Beth Leidner and Lauren Miller, take turns watering, and Pat Halprin stands by as a backup. They also periodically weed and deadhead the flowers so that they will keep blooming.

Carolyn recalls tending flowerbeds that she designed along the front and side of the building. The Beautification Committee applied for and won a $1000 Sullivan Renaissance grant in 2006 for "Best Container in a Single Location" The original flower gardens were created in 2008 with the help of devoted temple volunteers and TS religious school students, as well as Sullivan Renaissance workers, winning an additional $1000 Sullivan Renaissance prize. In 2015 they were awarded another $1,000 prize for maintenance.

Additional funding comes from the annual spring plant sale. Earnings have enabled the Committee to maintain the gardens as well as donate a much needed linoleum floor downstairs (installed by Jerry Bogursky), shades for the windows in the sanctuary, and shrubs on the temple grounds.

Speaking of support...

- Show our advertisers that they are appreciated— Use their services!
- Invite our High Holiday Hazzan and her husband to dinner or offer them accommodations any day from September 14-16.
- Help clean up after services
- Join a committee
- Take pictures at Temple events and send them to phillipssteph@gmail.com

Fortunately, we have support

There's more to beautification than just flowers. Carolyn gratefully acknowledges the help of all those who have volunteered in the garden over the years. Planting, weeding, watering, trimming have been a labor of love. TS volunteers have been our most valuable resource.

In the early spring, the Beautification Committee visits their talented Monticello Greenhouse florist Valerie Fersch, who gets the planters started. Once they are established, Carolyn and her crew set them up in front of the temple. Monticello Greenhouse also supplies the baskets of flowers for the plant sale.

Thanks to Mark Friedland of B&B landscaping for mulching the plants and trimming bushes this year. The Building Committee takes responsibility for the big stuff, like removing dead trees, as was done this spring. They also trim the trees, clear the brush, and weed whack the high grass in and around the paths.

So after you admire the flowers, show your appreciation for the beauty of our premises by thanking all our wonderful supporters.

Stephanie Phillips, PhD
President

Introducing Hazzan Laura Mandeles

We are very pleased to share that our Search Committee has successfully arranged for a wonderful religious leader to guide us through The High Holy Days!

Hazzan Laura Mandeles will be leading services during Erev Rosh Hashanah, Rosh Hashanah morning, the Second day of Rosh Hashanah, Tashlik, Erev Yom Kippur, and Yom Kippur. Hazzan Laura (her preferred title) comes to us with stellar recommendations, vast knowledge and experience in cantorial liturgy, and a voice that beautifully conveys the essence of our sacred music.

In addition to a successful career as a noteworthy management consultant, having graduated from Princeton University and after receiving a Master of Arts in Urban Studies from Occidental College, Hazzan Laura and her husband, Mark, have also raised two children in their hometown of Fairfax, Virginia. Additionally, as a gifted Cantorial soloist, her love of music and Judaism led her to receiving Smicha as Hazzan from the ALEPH Ordination Program.

Hazzan Laura has lead a Reform congregation in Virginia during The High Holidays for many years, including from Mishkan HaNefesh. She is experienced and comfortable leading both in-person and on-line services and is attuned to ways of making services accessible and meaningful to congregants at all levels of knowledge and observance. She looks forward to involving as many congregants as possible in sharing our mutual knowledge of the rich material Judaism offers.

In order to properly fulfill her duties, Hazzan Laura and Mark are planning to be in the area from September 14-26. Since they will be far from their home in Fairfax, Virginia, we are looking for congregants to host them or invite them to dinner while here. If you are able to welcome this charming couple into your home, or provide meals, please let Lauren know so that arrangements can be made.

Thank you,
Lauren (914-799-1424) lauren.miller13@gmail.com

A Message from Your Treasurer

You should have already received your dues invoice for the 2023-24 fiscal year by regular mail. I have billed everyone according to the dues structure in our budget and it reflects a 6% increase. If you are presently on dues remission in any amount, you must submit a new Application for Special Consideration. When I receive your form I will adjust your dues to reflect your needs. I included the form with your invoice if you did not return the form I sent to you last month. Our Constitution requires a new application every year.

I am also requesting that all members pay in full or by quarterly installments rather than monthly. Bookkeeping becomes overwhelming and I appreciate your understanding. If you use Billpay from your bank, be sure that payments are actually being paid. It is up to the member to keep track of payments made. Members under Special Consideration may continue to pay as they have been paying.

I hope that you are renewing your membership, but in the event that you are not, you must submit a letter to me indicating that you are leaving the Temple. If it is for financial reasons, please request an Application for Special Consideration. If your dues are unpaid, please understand that you will no longer have cemetery privileges. If you need a cemetery plot in the future, you will be billed as a non-member. You must also be a member in good standing in order to attend High Holy Day services at no charge in September. The definition of a member in good standing is in the Constitution that was sent to all members prior to our Annual meeting that was held in May.

As always, if you have any questions, you can reach me by email or by phone.

Regards,

Ellen Nesin

Treasurer

Be prepared to SAVE A LIFE

Temple Sholom will conduct two, one-hour, in-person classes for First Aid, CPR, and AED use.

Classes are free for congregation members only and will start July 17 at 11 am.

Call Don Horowitz at 845-707-4756 or Pat at Temple Sholom office.

Our AED unit is kept in the office on the shelf behind Pat.

Ira & Julia Levin

As we cross the threshold of our one-year anniversary with the temple, we've been taking note of the depths in our personal experience, individually and as a couple. As full time east coast musicians for more than the past decade, we have produced, published and procured a musical life while keeping our commitment throughout our career to uplift those around us with song.

As service leaders, cantorial soloists and musical guests, we've relished our time with those we've worked with, and continue to work with, as we also foster new connections. We will continue to strive to be a bridge between communities, pointing to that which unites us, while honoring our differences.

But being here among this beautiful community gives us the opportunity to center and deepen our roots while focusing on our kavanah. We are recognizing that it has inspired us to reinforce our commitment to offer a deeper level of shared connection outside these walls, in both sacred or secular settings.

It is truly a privilege to participate and witness, first-hand, the workings of a dedicated, loving community; a place to renew our wonder, renew our faith and to strengthen our capacity to give and receive in the most meaningful way.

We recognize that we kvell a bit over you all, perhaps at risk of becoming "schmaltzy," but know that you really are all a delight and we gain so much by being with you.

May our congregation continue to grow in love and thriving appreciation.

UPCOMING SOON - via ZOOM

Temple Sholom's first Women's Schmooze Group

Woman members of Temple Sholom are invited to join Sue Horowitz and Anne Palley as we come together (on screen) to share and enjoy our friendships.

Time and date will be announced shortly so, watch your e-mails.

Would you like to join like-minded individuals once a week to talk about current issues of the day? No agenda, just a schmooze among friends to discuss whatever topics come to mind.

Day and time to be decided.

If so contact Myron Gittell

PRIMETIMERS

Next meeting: Monday, July 10 at 1:00 PM

Over 50 people attended our first Primetimers meeting on June 12. Allan Dubow spoke about senior finances and addressed many concerns that we all had. Thank you Stephanie Philips for arranging to have your cousin Allan as our guest speaker.

Our next meeting is Monday, July 10, at 1 PM. We will have a program put on by the Nesin Cultural Arts and we are looking forward to having its founder, Ellen Nesin, attending as well. The gift shop will be open at 12:30 and Sharon Beckman will be selling her discounted handbags .

Our first trip to NYC was on Wednesday. June 21. Some people went to Broadway shows, museums, shopping, or met friends and relatives. A good time was had by all. Chris, our driver, did a great job getting us to the city and back safely and in good time . Thank you Rolling V for providing us with such good bus service for all of our trips.

On Wednesday, July 12, we will have a bus trip to New Paltz. We will leave the temple at 9 a.m., and have a one hour walking tour of Historic Huguenot Street. We will experience over 300 years of history across 7 historic stone house museums. Historic Huguenot Street was founded in 1894 to preserve their French and Dutch heritage. Lunch will be in beautiful New Paltz on our own. We will then have a tour of the campus. Bus, tip, and tour is only $55/pp.

On August 16, we will have a Day-On-Your-Own in New York City for only $45/pp with gratuity. Please let Paula know if you are coming.

On Thursday, August 31, we will have a bus trip to the Wind Creek Casino in Bethlehem, PA. You will get $30 free play. The trip cost is only $50/pp. There are 40 famous outlet stores on the property. This will be a great day.

The Temple Sholom card and Mah Jong luncheon will be July 31 at Camelot Woods clubhouse. Please get your games together. It is still only $30/pp. Call Bonnie or Paula for reservations.

Temple Sholom has discount tickets to Shadowland theater on Thursday, July 27. The show is Always Patsy Kline. Tickets are only $40/pp.

Shalom,

Paula

ONEG ענג SHABBAT שבת

Oneg Shabbat means,
“The Joy of Shabbat.”

We are now HYBRID!

You can sponsor an IN-PERSON ONEG SHABBAT or host a VIRTUAL ONEG SHABBAT.

Pick a Friday night that you would like to sponsor.

Contact SUE KANTOR (845-798-0578 or skantor914@yahoo.com) and tell her which Shabbat you will sponsor and if you have a specific reason: birthday, anniversary, in memory of, in honor of, to celebrate Shabbat, to support the temple, etc.

For virtual oneg — Send a donation check to:
Temple Sholom

PO Box 664, Monticello, NY 12701

Write “Virtual Oneg Shabbat” in the memo line.

You will be recognized as the sponsor/host in the email sent to temple members the week of your oneg, and you will be acknowledged during the service and on facebook.

Is your friend sponsoring an oneg? You can make a donation to the temple in their honor.

Due to the high prices of coffee and paper goods, we are suggesting a small donation to the temple when sponsoring an oneg.

Of course you have the option of bringing your own coffee and paper goods.

 Adult Education * * Shabbat Services ***

via ZOOM

Make sure you are on the temple's email list to receive notification of the links for Zoom services, classes, and meetings.

You can participate in Shabbat Services remotely. If you would like to participate via ZOOM, and you are not on our temple e-mail list, please e-mail the temple office (templesholom1954@gmail.com) for information about joining classes and services.

If you have never used ZOOM before, you will need to download the software and follow the instructions. Go to <https://zoom.us/download> and from the Download Center, click on the Download button under "Zoom Client For Meetings". This application will automatically download when you start your first Zoom Meeting.

ZOOM is usually up and running 15 minutes before the start time.
