GARDENERS NEEDED!

Caroline Richman, who has chaired the Beautification Committee for many years, is stepping down. If you love to garden, would you consider managing this committee? You would interact with Monticello Greenhouses to run the annual spring plant sale and maintain the gardens in front of the temple. As has been done by the committee for years, you would continue to keep Temple Sholom beautiful and inviting and then enjoy the accolades.

Contact Stephanie Phillips 845-436-9857 to volunteer.

From the President

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION

It is said that the devil can quote the bible for his own purpose. Many verses in the Tanach say the equivalent of “The Lord will protect you from all evil,” (Psalm 121:7), but then there’s this:

“A prudent man sees harm and hides, but fools pass through and are punished.”

--Proverbs 22:3

I tend to take the more optimistic view, but opportunity knocked in the form of an email from Rick Stein in late 2022, drawing my attention to the Securing Communities Against Hate Crimes program for nonprofit organizations at risk of a hate crime attack. The Federal Government was allocating millions of dollars to the states to combat terrorism. About fifty million dollars was to be available to New York State to fund about 1000 projects. This grant was to be administered by the NYS Division of Criminal Justice.

Despite my sanguine belief that Temple Sholom is a backwater that is relatively safe from terrorism, I couldn’t pass this up. In my younger days as a research biologist, I had applied for many Federal grants, so I figured this couldn’t be too hard. But that was before grant applications became digital. Oy!

It seemed that we couldn’t even apply for the grant money until New York State “prequalified” Temple Sholom via a website called “Grants Gateway.”

This involved proving our nonprofit status (We are not a 501(c) organization, but an equivalent.), submitting our Certificate of Incorporation from 1954 (Village of Monticello has lost it, but Marty Miller had a copy.), providing profiles of our Board members (had to ask for those), uploading our corporate bylaws (which needed updating), showing audit information (never been audited), certifying that we have workman’s comp (had to locate documents), having an employee code of conduct (we created one) , etc., etc. Four months after starting the process, I had managed to get us “prequalified,” just in time to submit the grant application before the deadline.

Then came the grant application itself. This required showing that we were at risk of hate crimes and that we have many vulnerabilities. It was eye opening to learn that we do indeed have vulnerabilities. Some of these, such as foliage that screened the building, were promptly corrected by our Building Committee. Others, such as lack of safety training for our congregants, are being corrected now. About navigating the Government websites, don’t ask! I became very cozy with the Division of Criminal Justice help desk folks.

Thankfully, our Board members provided many suggestions to strengthen the three grant applications to the NYS Department of Criminal Justice that were submitted in February. In July we learned that we have been awarded two of them, for a total of $99,720.

A Blessing or a Curse?

The security grants will fund upgrades for our elevator, bollards and fencing to prevent vehicle access to the building, surveillance cameras, reinforced doors to create a safe room, a PA system for emergency alerts, and window coatings to prevent shatter. These are great improvements, but quite a bit of work is involved on our part.

The grant does not allow for personnel or administrative costs. Under a government contract, we will be required to get three estimates for each project—and we all know how much time is involved in getting estimates from contractors around here. In addition, detailed bookkeeping, accounting, and reporting will be required. Worries about record keeping are keeping me up at night.

I am counting on the support of our wonderful volunteers to get us through this. If you have the knowledge and expertise to help, please contact me soon to relieve my anxiety. In the meantime, stay safe!

A Message from Hazzan Laura Mandeles

Dear Temple Sholom Congregation,

High Holidays will be coming up before you know it. While most people are slowing down for summer, rabbis and cantors are getting into “HiHo” high gear. I feel privileged to be leading Temple Sholom High Holiday services this year, and to be working with a group of really dedicated Temple Sholom volunteers to put it all together.

A little about me: A longtime cantorial soloist, I earned a Certificate in Jewish Sacred Music from Hebrew College in Boston in 2017 and entered the ALEPH Ordination Program the same year. I received smicha (ordination) as a “Hazzan” in January. The ALEPH program teaches from a Jewish Renewal perspective. Renewal services combine the traditional with the innovative, building on a Hasidic heritage to create a Judaism that is accessible and meaningful to people from all sorts of backgrounds.

Services with me will probably be different than your past experience. I’m a Hazzan (cantor in Hebrew), not a rabbi. So, I sing—a lot. There will be many types of musical prayer: traditional nusach (modal prayer chanting), niggunim (singing without words—lai, lai, lai or dai, dai, dai, or anything you want really), familiar High Holiday melodies, contemporary Jewish songs, and ancient mi Sinai melodies. We’ll talk more about that at services, and no, mi Sinai melodies did not come down the mountain with Moses.

I will use my guitar during the evening service for Rosh Hashana, and perhaps a bit in the morning services, but otherwise I will sing a cappella (without accompaniment). This means you all have to sing with me as much as you can! And if you don’t know the words, sing your niggun syllables.

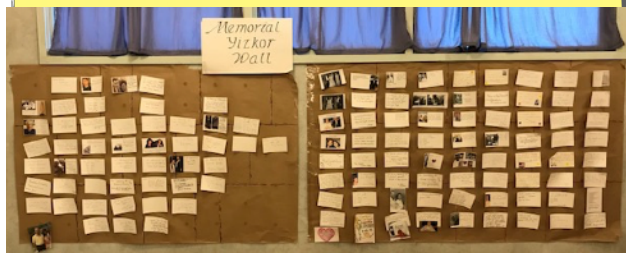

Rules of the House: 1. No matter what you do, you are not wrong and no one can tell you that you’re doing it wrong; 2. If you want to sit when everyone is standing, please sit, even when I ask everyone to stand. 3. You can also stand (off to the side) when everyone is sitting; 4. Please take a break whenever you need to—I didn’t schedule a break during Rosh Hashanah services. Just please try not to leave if the ark is open.

Warning: I will make mistakes, I will lose my place, I will forget the melody, I will start on a note that leaves everybody in an extremely high vocal register, I will call a mulligan and start stuff over.

Despite all that, my intention throughout will be to fulfill my sacred role as Sblichat tsibur—your emissary to the Divine.

See you soon,
Hazzan Laura

Honor the Memory of Your Loved Ones Memorial Wall

As in past years, a Wall of Remembrance will be created in the sanctuary of Temple Sholom. It will be a memorial to those loved ones who have passed away. Each “brick” will be a 3”x 5” blank index card. You may include your loved one’s name, a photo or picture, write a poem, write words describing that person, etc. on the card. You may create as many as you like. You can find the cards on a table near the wall in the rear of the Sanctuary. If you have blank, white 3”x 5” cards at home, you may use them and save a trip to the temple. Completed cards may be brought to the temple or mailed to Jane Jacobs, Temple Sholom, PO Box 664, Monticello, NY 12701. The deadline for submissions is no later than September 1, 2023. Jane will be building the wall as cards arrive in time for the High Holy Days.

PRIMETIMERS

Next meeting: Monday, August 14 at 1:00 PM

Our July meeting was enjoyed by all. We were privileged to have Jeff Yeung and Amy Pelosi as our guests. Aimee was a past recipient of the Nesin Scholarship and is now a string teacher in the High School. Jeff is a graduate of Sullivan West and teaches music there. Of course the icing on the cake was to have our beloved Ellen Nesin at the meeting.

On Monday, August 14, we will have Franklin Trapp from the Forestburgh Theater as our guest speaker. We hope he can bring some of the talented young people with him. Thank you Judy Cutler and Maureen Velten for arranging this program.

By the time you read this the two events we run for Temple Sholom will be over. Card party was a tremendous success as was the Shadowland Stages production of Always Patsy Cline.

On August 10 we have a self drive trip to the new Borscht Belt Museum in Ellenville. We will meet at the museum at 11:00 am and will have a docent guided tour at 11:15 am. Afterward, there will be time to browse the museum on your own and have lunch on your own at one of the many venues in Ellenville. Reservations including a donation to the museum are $15/pp. Please call Paula to reserve.

On August 31 there is availability for our bus trip to the Wind Creek Casino in Bethlehem, PA. You will get $30 free play and the cost of the bus is $50/pp. There are many famous outlet stores right on the property. The bus will leave the temple parking lot at 9:00 a.m. and return about 6:00 p.m. Call Paula for reservations.

On Monday, September 11 we will have an Appreciation Luncheon at Casa Mia in Hurleyville. This is not a fundraiser and the all inclusive price will be $25/pp for members. We will have a veteran speak about the history and effects of 911. One of our members will share her special story of this day. Please call Paula for reservations or bring to our August meeting.

We have kept the dues at only $10 a year. You get priority on trips and events, a donation to Temple Sholom on your birthday, and the privilege of attending wonderful meetings during season. All year round you enjoy reading the Harbinger if we have your email on file . Thank you for supporting all of our events.

Shalom,
Paula

We keep moving!

TEMPLE SHOLOM IS CLEARING OUT BOOKS

This has thinned out the libraries somewhat, but there are still more books. Visit Temple Sholom on a Monday or Thursday, and you can make your selection. Pat will tell you where to look.
