The Harbinger

IYYAR / SIVAN 5784

Shavuot 2024 begins at sundown on Tuesday June 11, and concludes at nightfall on Thursday, June 13.

Shavuot, which has become known as the Festival of the Giving of the Torah, was originally a harvest holiday. Along with Sukkot and Passover, it is one of the Shalosh Regalim (Three Pilgrimage Festivals), during which people gathered at the Temple in Jerusalem with their agricultural offerings.

In the time of the Temple in Jerusalem, the ancient Israelites brought their first fruits (first harvest of their crop) to the Temple to offer to God at Shavuot, 49 days after Passover. The name Shavuot, literally "weeks," symbolizes the completion of this seven-week period. In Leviticus 23:21, the Torah commands: "And you shall proclaim that day to be a holy convocation!"

(The Temple was destroyed in 70 CE, which means that the last barley offering was delivered one thousand, nine hundred, and fifty-four years ago.) After the Temple was destroyed and the Israelites could no longer bring the first fruits of their harvest as offerings, Talmudic rabbis reframed the holiday. The Rabbis ascribed Shavuot to the biblical story which recounts how, after the Exodus from Egypt, the Israelites proceeded to Mount Sinai in the desert. Moses ascended the mountain to meet God, who gave him the Ten Commandments, which were written on two tablets to be delivered to the Israelites.

Based on the Torah's description of when the Israelites arrived at Mount Sinai after the Exodus from Egypt (Exodus 19:1), the Rabbis set the date of the giving of the Torah as 6th day of the Hebrew month of Sivan, and the holiday that was once purely agricultural became the commemoration of the Israelites receiving the Torah at Mount Sinai. Today, even as we remember its agricultural roots, the holiday allows us to celebrate the Torah, education, and the wisdom that Jewish teachings have to offer us.

Gesundheit

Google says that “gesundheit” is a German response to a sneeze. It became widely used in English during the German immigration in the mid-1800s. However, I believe that its incorporation into English was largely due to Jewish immigration around the turn of the 20th century.

Why do we say “gesundheit” after a sneeze? The expression is a wish for health – gesund -- and heit a state of being – because health was not to be taken for granted back in the day. Only recently was it expected that children would be healthy and live to a ripe old age. In the nineteenth and early twentieth century, disease and death were common. Infectious diseases carried many away, and war eliminated a great many others. Now the expression is fading, being replaced with “Bless you,” which is not at all the same.

We Use Other Yiddishisms

Some of us with European backgrounds actually can understand Yiddish; others know a few words. We tend to use them to be funny or ironic, and they give us a warm, fuzzy feeling. Meshegach means crazy, but often tinged with sweetness. Chutzpah is often tinged with pride. A klutz bumbles through life, but in a nice way. We schlep heavy things and we schep naches (bring joy) from our grandchildren. We get together to schmooze and often nosh while we schmooze. We pick up useless tchotchkes at garage sales. Somebody who does good things is a mensch. We kvetch about the slow postal service. Where did tush derive from? – probably from the Yiddish tuchus. Did you know that glitch comes from Yiddish?

Why do we smile when we hear these words? We smile because they bring back memories of our grandparents. They are secret words that take us back to olden times. My mother was the youngest child in her family and never spoke Yiddish well, but she still passed along a few choice phrases that I cherish. My father only passed along rude words like nudnik, shmegegge, and shmendrik. We fondly remember our grandmother making kneidlach and lockshen kugel. If you're lucky, I might make some for you – you should live so long! (I wonder how you say that in Yiddish.)

Zay gesund!

RITUAL COMMITTEE NEWS

We are pleased to announce that Rabbi Molly Karp will be our officiant for High Holy Day services this fall. Rabbi Karp will be using our Days of Awe prayer books. Since there will be no visual tefilah, those planning to participate on Zoom for Hi Holy Day services will need to have the two prayer books that we will be using. You can borrow them from Temple Sholom or we have a limited number of prayer books available for purchase.

Gold Book - Mishkan Hanefesh - Machzor for the Days of Awe - Rosh Hashanah

Silver Book - Mishkan Hanefesh - Machzor for the Days of Awe - Yom Kippur

The cost for both books is $45 plus shipping. If you purchase them from Temple Sholom it becomes a donation to the temple.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact Ellen Nesin. 914-799-3650 or nesineh49@gmail.com.

The Ritual Committee is looking forward to the spiritual and meaningful High Holy Day services led by Rabbi Karp.

PRIMETIMERS - Monday, June 10, at 1:00 PM

The Primetimers have a great season planned for you. On Monday, June 10, at 1 PM, Mimi Werner will give a powerpoint presentation about her parents' Holocaust experience. We will distribute our calendar of events at this meeting. I want to thank Bonnie Mitzner, Linda Kleinman, and Lauren Miller for helping me to plan these events.

We still have seats on the first bus to New York City on Wednesday, June 19. Donation is $55, round trip with gratuity.

On Friday, July 12, we will have a self-drive trip to Fort Delaware in Narrowsburg. It is about 30 minutes from Monticello. We are so happy that Historian John Conway will lead the tour. We meet at 10:30 am. Donation is only $25/pp.

On Thursday, July 18, we have a bus to Wind Creek Casino. It's a beautiful ride to Bethlehem PA, with many outlet stores and lunch venues. Donation is $55 and you get back $30 free play.

August 9, we have a self-drive to Buck Brook Alpacas in Rosco. See the alpacas and make a craft. Private tour and craft class only $25/pp.

August 14, we have a bus to NYC for a day on your own. $55/pp.

Temple Sholom has limited tickets for Beehive The Musical at Shadowland. See the ad below. Only $36.

Please support our fundraisers.

Shalom,

Paula

(Consider the Omer's first appearance in the Torah, back in Exodus, Chapter 16. "This is the thing that the Lord has commanded," Moses thunders as manna starts falling from heaven. "Gather of it each one according to his eating capacity, an omer for each person, according to the number of persons, each one for those in his tent you shall take." The omer, then, is a unit of measurement, and a magical unit at that: When the Israelites follow Moses's instructions and gather just enough manna for each to eat, they discover that no matter how much each person took, none ended up having too much and none too little. Whatever else the omer was, it was an omen of a more perfect society, one where no one lacks for anything and where people realize that no one may grab a lot more at the expense of others. But Moses soon delivers one more instruction, this one much harder to follow: Don't, he tells his hungry people, keep anything for tomorrow. Eat as much manna as you'd like, then throw the rest away. The Israelites rebel. They are, after all, newly free slaved, so the idea of tossing away perfectly good food, especially as the desert isn't the most nourishing place, is terrifying to them. But they wake up the next morning and learn that all the leftover manna they had stashed away had turned rotten and putrid overnight.

When things all around us are grim, we remind ourselves that we may not control whatever space or whatever physical reality we're in. The Omer is a 50-day reminder that there's so much we do not and cannot control—war, violence, anti-Semitism—but there's one amazing thing we can and do control: ourselves. For 50 days, we pause and imagine what we can do, today, here, on earth, in our small and private lives. We understand that every decision we make, but particularly the decision not to lose faith when things seem grim, can elevate us. And that's our true superpower.)

Blintzes are often served to celebrate Shavuot. Some believe that when the laws were given at Mount Sinai (which Shavuot commemorates), no kosher meat was available so the people ate dairy foods to fulfill the laws of kashrut. Another, more likely theory is that the animals gave birth in the spring (when Shavuot is celebrated), and milk from cows and sheep was plentiful for making cheese and other dairy-based dishes. Blintzes in particular make for an ideal holiday treat because two blintzes side by side on a plate will look like the two sides of a Torah scroll.

INGREDIENTS

1 stick unsalted butter
1 dozen cheese or fruit-filled blintzes (homemade or frozen)
4 eggs
1 1/2 cups sour cream or Greek yogurt
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon orange juice

DIRECTIONS

1. Preheat oven to 350°F.
2. Microwave the butter directly in a 13x9-inch glass baking dish until melted. Place the blintzes over the butter in one layer.
3. Meanwhile, whisk the four eggs in a 2-quart mixing bowl. Add the remaining ingredients and blend well. Pour over the blintzes.
4. Bake for 35–45 minutes or until the top starts to brown. Cut along each blintz or into squares.

Blintzes were originally made in Ukraine, which was part of the Pale of Settlement, an area that included parts of modern-day Russia, Ukraine, Lithuania, and other countries, where Jews of the Russian Empire were forced to live for almost 150 years.

Oneg Shabbat means, “The Joy of Shabbat.”

We are now HYBRID!

You can sponsor an IN-PERSON ONEG SHABBAT or host a VIRTUAL ONEG SHABBAT.

Pick a Friday night that you would like to sponsor.

Contact SUE KANTOR (845-798-0578 or skantor914@yahoo.com) Tell her which Shabbat you will sponsor and if you have a specific reason: birthday, anniversary, in memory of, in honor of, to celebrate Shabbat, to support the temple, etc.

For virtual oneg — Send a donation check to:
Temple Sholom

PO Box 664, Monticello, NY 12701

Write “Virtual Oneg Shabbat” in the memo line.

You will be recognized as the sponsor/host in the email sent to temple members the week of your oneg, and you will be acknowledged during the service and on facebook.

Is your friend sponsoring an oneg? You can make a donation to the temple in their honor.

The temple supplies paper goods, utensils and coffee. However, due to increased cost, we are now asking sponsors to donate an additional $18 to cover the cost. You have the option to bring your own tablecloth, paper goods, and coffee instead of paying $18. In addition, your donation to Temple Sholom is always encouraged and welcomed.

* Adult Education * * Shabbat Services ***

via ZOOM

Make sure you are on the temple's email list to receive notification of the links for Zoom services, classes, and meetings.

You can participate in Shabbat Services remotely. If you would like to participate via ZOOM and you are not on our temple e-mail list, please e-mail the temple office (templesholom1954@gmail.com) for information about joining classes and services.

If you have never used ZOOM before, you will need to download the software and follow the instructions. Go to <https://zoom.us/download> and from the Download Center, click on the Download button under "Zoom Client For Meetings". This application will automatically download when you start your first Zoom Meeting.

ZOOM is usually up and running 15 minutes before the start time.
