FROM OUR PRESIDENT.....

One of my earliest memories of Chanukah is lighting the family menorah in the dining room window, singing the prayers with my mother and brother, and letting the light shine out the window along with the other menorahs in my neighbors' windows. It's always so satisfying to use that same menorah with my own children, continuing family traditions to this day.

There is a beautiful tradition to have something specific in mind while lighting each night's candle. The first night, one can notice how one small light can light up the entire room. The second night, that with each candle added, we should emulate the act of bettering ourselves with small, achievable steps. The third night we should remember to hold on to our values and not give in to external pressure. The fourth night we remember that our actions have untold power that we don't know about until we try. The fifth night we renew our identities as Jews and promise to keep the fire of the Jewish nation going. On the sixth night we remember to center our lives around something greater than ourselves. On the seventh night we reaffirm that the Jewish people will always persevere. And on the eighth night, we remember to be proud of who we are and to be a light unto others, inspiring people to live their best lives.

I also want to stress how important it is to have an up-to-date fire extinguisher or a fire blanket near your menorah, no matter how safe you think it is. Too many families have had emergencies because of leaping flames, so please be smart and be prepared. We want to make sure everyone stays safe during the holiday.

Chag Chanukah Sameach, a Freilichen Chanukah, and happy Chanukah, everyone.

Stacey Sharoff

A message from your Treasurer

Please remember to send in your check for dues if you haven't done so already. The new fiscal year began on July 1, 2025. If you have any questions concerning the amount of dues that is owed, please send an email to Ellen Nesin at nesineh49@gmail.com. Thank you in advance for your attention to this matter.

Ellen Nesin

Treasurer, Temple Sholom Congregation

Dear Temple Sholom Members,

This year, we the Jewish people, began our 5,786th year. We lasted this long despite over 400 years as slaves in Egypt and 40 years wandering in the desert. We survived the Romans, the efforts of the Crusades, the Spanish Inquisition, Hitler's Third Reich, Stalin's Gulags, Arab attempts of annihilation, and more. We are able to survive by concentrating our efforts on education, love of family, and a passionate dedication to Temple life.

The New Year has come and gone but our temple still needs your financial support. I urge you to renew your Century Club membership, or if not a member, to please join us at the annual rate of $100 or more. Your name will be acknowledged in the Harbinger and during services.

Very truly yours,

Joel Lerner, Chairperson

Please print how you would like to have your name acknowledged.

As we write this, we are preparing to visit family in Iowa to celebrate Julia's mother's 90th birthday. It's the start of the holidays of the winter season. A season of various festive plans with families and friends, and friends that have become family.

It's quite a blessing, in itself, that we begin this season by focusing on gratitude and giving thanks. Julia and I have so much to be thankful for, especially having the opportunity to serve the communities and congregations that we do. We do miss our in-person gatherings, but the harsh winds blowing outside, remind us how fortunate we are to come together online, as well. We do look forward to gathering for Hanukkah on Sunday, December 14th, as an oasis that will help us through the longer nights.

Our festival of lights represents, not only the rededication of the temple but another miraculous victory over tyranny. As we face the uncertainty of these times, we can draw from the courage of the Maccabees' faith.

There are days we may feel outnumbered and overwhelmed but we can use these eight nights to fuel our capacity to make it past our fears. And each Shabbat, we can navigate together to a place of strength, hope and courageous determination that is at the heart of our chag and at the center of our congregation.

Find moments for a bit of rejuvenation, as well. Catch your breath and restore the internal covenant of love to share with each other as we enter, together, into 2026.

Love and Shalom, Ira and Julia

*Thank you Judy Cutler for repairing our precious torah cover for the Lauderstein Torah.
Your skills are invaluable.*

Observing a yahrzeit is a sacred opportunity to honor the memory of a loved one. One meaningful way to do so is by making a donation to the temple in their name. Such a gift serves not only as a tribute to their life and legacy but also as an act of tzedakah - righteous giving - that strengthens our community.

Your donation helps ensure that the temple continues as a place of worship, learning, and connection for years to come. It supports meaningful programs, services, and care for our congregation, while also creating a lasting legacy. In this way, your loved one's memory is woven into the ongoing life of the temple, bringing blessing both to you and to the entire community.
